

When Seconds Count, Count on Panviva.

Avoid the frustration of endless information searches that diminish customer experience.

Your customers expect a split second response when they contact your company. But your people and channels can only work as fast as your knowledgebase will let them.

The Panviva platform delivers the exact knowledge customers need, precisely when they need it, through:

- A centralized knowledge base.
- Task-based content development authoring tools.
- Digital orchestration of content for Omnichannel delivery.
- Integrated access to all customer facing connection points via intelligent APIs.
- Leveraging AI for natural language interactions.

Panviva's step-by-step workflow guidance lets you:

- Re-invent outdated processes and procedures.
- Give your people the tools and training to quickly master new skills and systems and applications.
- Meet the constantly changing demands of today's digital age.

Follow the guide-on-the-side.

The compact Panviva interface provides information based on users' roles, where they are in the application, and what they need to know or do to proceed to the next step. Panviva relies on three keys when delivering enterprise performance support:

*Panviva's methodology combined with the intuitive guide-on-the-side ensures the right answers are never more than three clicks away!

CONTEXT
